

UK Visa & English Level Requirements for 2026

Are you planning to apply for a visa or extend your stay in the UK? Here is a simple guide to the rules for January 2026.

1. The Spouse Visa (Family Visa)

Many students are asking if the English level for the first Spouse Visa will change from A1 to A2.

- The Fact: As of today, the level for your first Spouse Visa is still A1.
- The Future: The government has not currently announced a change to A2

If you are applying for...	You need this level
Your first Spouse Visa	A1 (Speaking & Listening)
A Visa Extension (after 2.5 years)	A2 (Speaking & Listening)
Settlement / Permanent Home	B1 (Speaking, Listening, and "Life in the UK" test)

Official Link: You can check the rules here: GOV.UK Family Visa English Rules

2. Can Queen's English School "Sponsor" You?

We are not a 'sponsor' but here is how we can help you with your application::

Short-term Student Visa (up to 11 months)

- Yes, we can help! We are an accredited school.
- We can give you a Letter offerings qualifying course. You use this letter to apply for a Short-term Student Visa to study English for up to 11 months in our school.

The "Student Route" (Longer studies/University)

- No. We do not have a "Student Sponsor License." We cannot give you a CAS (Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies). This is usually for universities.

Spouse or Work Visas

- We are your Teacher: We cannot "sponsor" these visas because they are based on your family or your job.

- However, we are a SELT Course Provider. We will help you study and pass the English exam you need for your application.

3. Important Update: Skilled Worker Visa

On 8th January 2026, the rules for Skilled Worker visas changed. These workers now need a B2 level English certification. Not all certificates are valid: you must hold a certificate from an exam taken at a SELT centre, such as Trinity SELT. This is because these exams have been approved by the UK Home Office.

We are an Authorized Trinity SELT Course Provider. We will help you study and pass the English exam you need for your application.

What should you do next?

1. Check your level: Contact the office for a free test.
2. Book your course: Join our exam preparation classes to feel confident for your test.

Do you have any questions? Please email info@queens-english.co.uk.