Why Queen's English Language School?

We organize courses in English as a Foreign Language for adults (18+) at all levels from Elementary to Advanced, including Courses for Business People and Au Pairs. If you are looking for a professionally run school with good resources and qualified and committed teachers, look no further.

We are truly flexible and we always offer the course that suits your requirements:

Our classes are small (6 student, up to 8 students at busy times), unless we organize a special group course at your request.

We can normally start a new class with at least 4 people.

Miguel G., Spain

Why are we different?

We are committed to making sure that your learning experience is worthwhile and prepares you for the future. We offer support for learners before and after completion of the course.

It is possible to study on-line and receive the same personal attention as the students who attend the school. This option is also open to students living in our area as well so if you cannot attend the school, you do not have to give up studying English.

Our lessons are delivered using Google Classroom

‘I heard so many horror stories about language schools and I am glad there is no such risk with Queen’s English.’

Antonio P., Italy

What is our method?

Firstly, we interview each student to make sure we understand their reasons to study English. We do not offer ‘packaged’ courses because we do not believe that ‘one size fits all’. We are interested in each student’s previous experience of learning a foreign language, not only English. We explore the way each student learns best and finally, why they want or need to study English. We also use traditional grammar and listening placement tests. Age, interests and personality, are all taken into consideration, as well as your timescale, to make sure we offer you the best service possible. Only the School Principal or the senior teachers conduct the interview, in order to offer you a course that suits your needs.

How are our courses organised?

We offer a variety of courses to adult students (18+) from different countries as well as people already living in London. We have been offering English courses since 2000 and we have a great deal of experience of students of any age and language ability.

We also pride ourselves on the relationship we have built with local companies we work with, delivering one-to-one or group English language training to their employees.

Each session covers a different aspect of the language: speaking, listening, reading comprehension, grammar and written communication. During your course you will be taught key aspects of English language and culture, including interesting historical facts and current affairs. At the beginning your course you will be given a summary of the course content so you can keep track of your progress. Teachers incorporate their assessment in each course and this will be reflected in your end of course report. We carry out weekly assessment and once a month each student meets their main teacher for a tutorial, during which both the progress made and strategies for improvements are highlighted and agreed.

Special Courses

English for Cambridge Examinations

We have been preparing students for a number of Cambridge Examinations and we can arrange direct entry for the examination through a local exam centre (www.thelondonexamcentre.com.) Please note that we do not apply any additional charge for this service but the exam fee is not included in the course price. Our English for Cambridge Examination Course teaching takes place either in the morning, evening or at the weekend, to make sure we offer the widest possible choice to our students. In this way, if you currently work in the UK, either part time or full time, you are sure to find the course timetable that suits YOUR schedule.

English for Business People and In-Company Courses

Since 2000, we have been delivering quality English courses to business people. We can arrange for classes to take place at our premises as well as offering the flexible option of delivering our course at your company. You can be funded by your company as part of your contract or pay for your own courses.

Whichever you choose, you receive the same level of attention to detail and expert teaching. Our

‘A special ‘thank you’ to my teachers at Queen’s English Language School. They were flexible and understanding when my working schedule as an au-pair changed at short notice.’

Natalia P., Poland

English Courses for Au Pairs

If you are an au-pair and one of your reasons for visiting London is to improve your English, you are probably looking for a local school that offers flexibility of attendance at a very reasonable price. We can accept au-pair students at any time during the year, for any length of time and are the only local school of English that can offer this. We understand that the family you work for may ask you to be available at a short notice or to change previously made arrangements.

We do not charge for the half term week when you are busy with the children because their school is closed.

Therefore, you can still benefit from the advanced payment discount, if you choose it.

English Courses for Young Learners

We run courses for Young Learners aged 16+. Summer courses run in June, July and August of each year. We can teach young learners if they attend with their family or if they do not require home-stay (for example, if they are under the responsibility of a friend or relative).

We have a maximum of 8 students in each class on these courses (Young Learners course).

The teaching of English as a Foreign Language to Young Learners requires an appropriately skilled and experienced teaching staff. Our teachers are both qualified to teach English and aware of the different requirement of young learners teaching.

Please note that we need to know any dietary requirements and allergies at the time of booking. Parents/ carers will be asked to sign a declaration that they have made the school fully aware of any medical conditions for the Young Learners enrolled with us.

Our standard courses timetable

Please note that the timetable for school groups will be adjusted to the group's timetable to include arrival/departure time, excursions, etc.

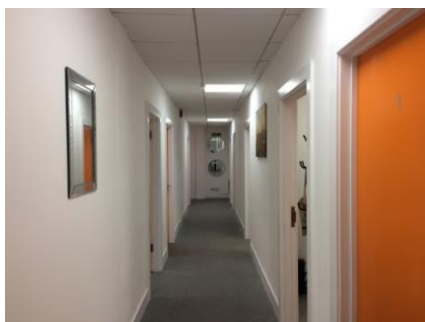

We offer flexible course attendance from a minimum of 4 hours a week. Classes start at 9am, 10 am, 1pm and 6pm, giving you maximum flexibility and choice.

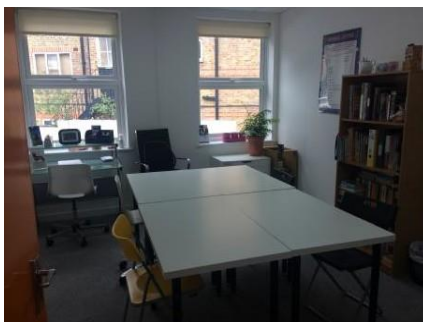

Enrolment Procedure

Students are asked to complete a test to find out their language ability, so students can be placed in the correct class. They will also be asked to come for an interview, where the course will be discussed and agreed as well. If you live abroad and you wish to complete all your enrollment before arrival, we offer a remote interview and our level test can be done on your computer in any case.
